From (Name) G. W. Wells, Esquire, M.A., I.C.S.

(Designation) Collector of South Kanara,

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Law (General) Department.

Madras

Sir,

The villages of Amtadi, Muda, Tumbe and Kallige are at present included within the jurisdiction of the Bantwal Panchayat court, please see the notification dated 19-4-20, appended to G.O.No.1019 dated 19-4-20, Home, (Judicial). The residents of these villages and of seven other adjoining villages request that a new Panchayat court may be constitut ed for Amtadi, Muda, Tumbe, Kallige, Tenka Bellur, Badaga Bellur, Kurial, Ammanuje and Kariangala villages, after excluding the first ~~five~~ four villages from the jurisdiction of the Bantwal Panchayat court, on the following grounds:-

1. That the villages of Amtadi, Muda, Tumbe and Kallige are far from the Bantwal Panchayat court and t residents of these villages are thereby subjected to much inconvenience and ( 2) that Muda village contains a cooparative Society, of which most of the above villagers are members, and is a central place. Hence, it is convenient for the villagers to transact both kinds of business at the same time.

2. The Deputy Tahsildar, Bantwal reports that the difficulty experienced by the villagers is real and he recommends that a new Panchayat court may be opened in Muda village as requested above, and that the Bantwal Panchayat court may be reconstituted by substituting Mudoli, Arla, Kadabettu and Kudambettu villages for the 4 villages proposed to be removed from the jurisdiction of the Bantwal Panchayat court. He adds that there will be sufficient work for both the Panchayat courts.

3. All the villages of the proposed additional court are within a distance of 5 miles from Modenkap, in Muda village, where the court is to be held. It is possible to get the requisite number of Panchayatdars for this court. Modenkap contains a Cooperative Society, to which all the other adjoining villages are affiliated. The Manager of the Modenkap Higher Elementary school is willing to allow his school building for the use of the Panchayat court free of rent. There are no rivers or unfordable streams separating Modenkap from the rest of the villages.

4. As regards the four villages proposed to be included within the jurisdiction of the Bantwal Panchayat court for reconstitution, they are about a distance of 5 or 6 miles from Bantwal and there are no rivers or unfordable streams intervening.

5. The villages to be brought under the jurisdiction of the proposed Panchayat courts cannot have a Panchayat court each as required by G.O.No.1148 dated 4-5-20, Home (Judicial) on account of the small number of suits filed and for want of buildings free of rent. Nor can they be conveniently added to any other Panchayat court.

6. In the above circumstances, I recommend that the existing Panchayat court at Bantwal may be abolished and reconstituted and a new court constituted in Muda village with effect from 1-4-26.

Draft notifications under clauses 1 and 7 of section 9 of the Village Courts Act are enclosed.

Your obedient servant,

for Collector.
